INTRODUCTION

On the 348 rolls of this microfilm publication are reproduced the applications submitted for shares of the money that was appropriated for the Eastern Cherokee Indians by the Congress on June 30, 1906. The Eastern Cherokee applications, August 29, 1906-May 26, 1909, are part of the Guion Miller Enrollment Records that are among the records of the U.S. Court of Claims. This publication also includes a general index to Eastern Cherokee applications (two vols.).

History

Before the U.S. Court of Claims was established in 1855 there was no procedure by which claims arising against the U.S. Government could be enforced by suit. Consideration of claims was provided for when the Treasury Department was established in 1789; later acts of the Congress authorized the Department to settle all claims by or against the Government. If a claim was rejected by the Treasury Department, the claimant's only course of action was to appeal directly to the Congress. Petitions to that body for relief had become so numerous by the middle of the 19th century that the Congress was beginning to find it impossible to make the proper and necessary investigations for actions on the claims.

The U.S. Court of Claims was established by an act of February 24, 1855, to hear claims against the United States including those referred to the court by the Congress, based on any law of the Congress, any regulation of an executive department, or any contract with the Government, whether explicit or implied. Under this act the court served only as a factfinding agency, and its conclusions were submitted to the Congress for approval and for the granting of awards. In 1863 the Congress enlarged the court's jurisdiction and gave it authority to render judgments against the Government, with the right of appeal to the Supreme Court. An act of 1925 abolished appeals from the Court of Claims to the Supreme Court and substituted writs of certiorari.

An act approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat. 726), gave the Court of Claims jurisdiction over any claim arising under treaty stipulations that the Cherokee Tribe, or any band thereof, might have against the United States and over any claims that the United States might have against any Cherokee Tribe or band. Suit for such a claim was to be instituted within 2 years after the act was approved. As a result, three suits were brought before the court concerning grievances arising out of the treaties:

(1) The Cherokee Nation v. The United States, General-Jurisdiction Case No. 23199; (2) The Eastern and Emigrant Cherokees v. The United States, General-Jurisdiction Case No. 23212; and (3) The Eastern Cherokees v. The United States, General-Jurisdiction Case No. 23214.

On May 18, 1905, the court decided in favor of the Eastern Cherokees and instructed the Secretary of the Interior to identify the persons entitled to participate in the distribution of funds for payment of the claims. On June 30, 1906, the Congress appropriated more than $1 million for this purpose. The task of compiling a roll of eligible persons was begun by Guion Miller, special agent of the Interior Department. In a decree of April 29, 1907, the court (1) vacated that part of its earlier decision that had given the Secretary of the Interior responsibility for determing the eligbility of claimants and (2) appointed Miller as a special commissioner of the Court of Claims.

The same decree also provided that the fund was to be distributed to all Eastern and Western Cherokee Indians who were alive on May 28, 1906, who could establish the fact that at the time of the treaties they were members of the Eastern Cherokee Tribe or were descendants of such persons, and that they had not been affiliated with any tribe of Indians other than the Eastern Cherokee or the Cherokee Nation. The decree further provided that claimants should already have applications on file with the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, or should file such applications with the special commissioner of the Court of Claims on or before August 31, 1907. Additionally, applications for minors and persons of unsound mind were to be filed by their parents or persons having their care and custody, and applications for persons who had died after May 28, 1906, were to be filed by their children or legal representatives.

In his report of May 28, 1909, Miller stated that 45,847 separate applications had been filed, representing a total of about 90,000 individual claimants, 30,254 of whom were enrolled as entitled to share in the fund--3,203 residing east and 27,051 residing west of the Mississippi River. On June 10, 1909, the court confirmed and approved the roll, submitted by Miller in his report, of Eastern Cherokees who were entitled to a share of the fund except "so much as shall be expected (excepted) to on or before August 30, 1909." After the exceptions had been filed and investigated, Miller submitted a supplemental report and roll to the court on January 5, 1910. In this report he stated that about 11,750 exceptions had been made, that the names of 610 persons (238 east and 372 west of the Mississippi) had been added to the roll, and that the names of 44 persons (5 east and 39 west of the Mississippi) had been stricken from the roll because clerical errors in enrollment had been discovered. Thus the final figure on the total number of persons entitled to share in the fund was 30,820, of which 3,436 persons resided east and 27,384 resided west of the Mississippi River. On March 15, 1910, the court finally decreed that the rolls be approved and that, after certain deductions for expenditures, payments were to be made equally among the Eastern Cherokees who were enrolled. The court also authorized the Secretary of the Treasury to issue a warrant in favor of each person.

In certifying the eligibility of the Cherokees, Miller used earlier census lists and rolls that had been made of the Cherokees by Hester, Chapman, Drennen, and others between 1835 and 1884. Copies of some of these rolls and the indexes to them are filed with the Miller records(filmed as M685). Other enrollment records used by Miller are among the classified subject files of the Bureau and are designated as "33931-11-053 Cherokee Nation."

Records

The applications contain sworn evidences of identity and were filed with the Interior Department's Office of Indian Affairs until April 29, 1907 (the last application was No. 22268), after which the applications were filed directly with the court. The application required each claimant to state fully his or her English and Indian names, residence, age, place of birth, name of husband or wife, name of tribe, and names of children. It further required the English and Indian names of the claimant's parents and grandparents, place of their birth, place of their residence in 1851 if they were living at that time, dates of their death, and a statement as to whether any of them had ever before been enrolled as Indians for annuities or other benefits and, if so, with what tribe. Each claimant was also to furnish the names of all brothers and sisters, with their ages and residences, and the names and residences of all uncles and aunts. Applications were required to be made under oath and to be supported by affidavits of two witnesses who were well acquainted with the applicant. With each application is a card showing final action taken and the reasons therefore. Filed with many of the applications are inquiries concerning the status of the cases, requests for further evidence, protests about unfavorable actions, form letters that had been sent by the special commissioner to the applicants as notices of rejection of their applications and returned by the Post Office Department as unclaimed, affidavits and statements of witnesses, powers of attorney, and last wills and testaments. The applications are arranged by the number assigned at the time the application was received. There are some gaps in the application numbers; these are explained on insert sheets at the appropriate places on the film. The index is arranged alphabetically by name (either English or Indian) of claimant.

Many of the files contain a cross-reference card to other applications. This cross-reference card often refers to the EX file, the report on exceptions filed by Miller on January 5, 1910.

Related Records

The records reproduced in this microfilm publication are part of the records in the custody of the National Archives and Records Service (NARS) designated as Records of the U.S. Court of Claims, Record Group (RG) 123. Among related records in this record group are additional records relating to Miller's enrollment of the Eastern Cherokees. These include receipts for Treasury warrants and miscellaneous correspondence, 1906-11. The original of these records is in RG 123; a copy is in RG 75.

Some related records in Records of the Bureau of Indian Affairs, RG 75, have been reproduced as NARS Microfilm Publication T496, Census Roll, 1835, of the Cherokee Indians East of the Mississippi and Index to the Roll. Also in RG 75 are the classified subject files of the Bureau.

Records Relating to Enrollment of Eastern Cherokees by Guion Miller, 1908-10, M685, contains the general index to Eastern Cherokee applications, 2 volumes; the report submitted by Guion Miller, May 28, 1909, 10 volumes; the roll of Eastern Cherokees, May 28, 1909; the report on exceptions filed, January 5, 1910; the supplemental roll of Eastern Cherokees, January 5, 1910; transcripts of testimony, February, 1908-March 1909, 10 volumes; various indexes and rolls of Eastern Cherokee Indians, 1851, 1854, and 1884; and miscellaneous notes and drafts.

Additional records relating to the enrollment of Eastern Cherokee Indians are in Records of the Office of the Secretary of the Interior, Record Group 48.

These records were prepared for filming by Jestine Turner and William D. Grover, who also prepared these introductory remarks.

Jane Wolfe, after being fir t duly sworn, deposes and says:

My Dawes Commission No. is 6199. My parents died when I was small. My mother was an Immigrant and my father an Old Settler. My mother drew Immigrant money in 1852. Her name was Sarah Christie or Sarah Core. My oldest sister was named Elizabeth. My mother was married b fore she married my father. My mother had a daughter by her first husband named Polly. I never saw my mother's parents. My relations always told me my mother drew Immigrant money. I think Elizabeth drew money with the Immigrants. I drew my father's share of the Old Settler money. I do not know what District I was born in. My mother had a sister named Betsy and one named Caty.

Madam:-

Relative to your application #3173 on file in this office for share of money appropriated for the Eastern Cherokee Indians, you state that you claim through your grandfather, Flee Downing, and grandmother, Wattie Downing. Neither of these names appear upon the rolls of 1835 or 1851. You also state in your application that your mother, Lila Downing, is living at the present time. Do you know whether she has filed application in this office, and, if so, can you give me the number of her application, stating under what name she is filed.

I am enclosing you a list of questions which you will please fill in and return to this office at your earliest convenience, and oblige,

Very respectfully,

Special Commissioner.

Honorable C. E. Hamlin,
House of Representatives,
Washington, D. C.

Sir:

Your letter of recent date, addressed to the Honorable Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and inclosing a communication from Mr. A. J. Davison, of Walnut Grove, Missouri, has been referred to this office for reply.

In reply you are advised that William P. Eaves, of Walnut Grove, Missouri, has an application on file in this office for participation in the Eastern Cherokee fund, and the testimony furnished in connection with the same is sufficient for the final adjudication of the claim, but until I make my report to the Court I do not feel at liberty to announce my decision in regard to any particular case.

I expect to make my report to the Court of claims during the month of May next. The Court will then no doubt allow a reasonable time for the filing of exceptions to my report, and until these exceptions are considered and disposed of, and the roll finally approved by the Court, no money can be distributed.

Mr. Davison's letter is returned to you herewith.

Very respectfully,

Special Commissioner.

App. No. 1664.

January 26, 1907.

Emma Sixkiller,

Afton,

Indian Territory.

Madam:-

Replying to your letter of January 21, 1907, relative to the application filed by Napoleon B. Blythe, as your brother, you are advised that your letter has been filed, and the information contained therein will be considered in connection with your application.

This Office cannot state, at this time, whether or not Napoleon B. Blythe is your brother, but each application will have to be thoroughly investigated before it is allowed, and at that time it will be determined who is entitled to your deceased father's and brother's share of the Eastern Cherokee fund.

A. E. Blythe and William Blythe were on the Rolls of 1851, but the name of Napoleon B. Blythe does not appear to be so enrolled. As you were not born until after 1851 your name, of course, does not appear on said roll.

Very respectfully,

GM-NLC. Chief Clerk.

Dear Sir:-

I beg to hand you herewith the claim of my sister, Mrs. R. W. Hamilton, to a share in the funds soon to be disbursed by your office to the Emigrant Cherokees. Since sending in a similar claim for myself I have been informed that Gabriel, Cicero and Richard T. Martin brothers, and Ellen Vann, nee Martin, and Millie Duncan, nee Martin, sisters, of my maternal grandmother, Martha Adair, nee Martin, were on the 1851 roll and died without issue. Will it be necessary for me to make out another claim covering the above or will the evidence of my sister on those points be sufficient?

Very Respectfully,
Walter A. Thompson.

Relative to your application #3230 for a share of the money appropriated for the Eastern Cherokee Indians, in which you claim Cherokee blood by reason of being the daughter of Sequoyah Daylight and Peggy (or Nancy) Kiliniger, giving your grandparents' names on your mother's side as Samuel and Sarah Kiliniger, will say the names as you have given them do not appear upon the rolls of 1851. What were the Indian names of your grandparents, and what were the Indian names of your father and mother? Where were your grandparents living in 1851, and under what names were they enrolled in 1851? Where were your father and mother living in 1851, and under what names were they enrolled at that time? Also state in what district they were enrolled. Were your grandparents on either side known as "Old Settlers" or "Emigrant Cherokee Indians"? #3229 Miscel.

William C. Johnson, being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

That I am 51 years of age and live in St. Elmo, Hamilton, Co. Tenn. My mother was said to be 1/2 Cherokee Indian. My father was 1/8 Indian and his mother was 1/4 (Cherokee). My grandmothers on both sides were Indians. My grandmother on my mother's side was Lucy Buckner, I think. Her married name was Roberts. My grandmother on my father's side, was named Peecie Johnson, formerly Branam. Neither of my grandmothers had Indian names that I know of. I don not know that any of my ancestors were on any roll. My mother was born in Buncombe Co., N.C., stayed there until 15 or 16 years of age and then came to Fannin Co., Ga. where she lived until she died, which was about five years ago. I am not positive where my father was born but he was raised in Fannin Co., Ga. My maternal grandmother was raised in Buncombe Co., N.C., also died there. My paternal grandmother was raised in N. C., I think, but do not know the county. She came not a great ways from the place where my mother was raised. Both of my grandmothers were living in N. C. In 1835. My father was Indian and English. My mother was Indian and English. I always have been recognized as white where I live, so have my parents. My mother lived with the Indians and among Indians in N. C. My mother can talk Indian language. I remember very well a man by the name of Bridges coming from Cherokee Co., N. C. and hearing him and my mother talk Cherokee when I was a boy. My mother has told me that my grandmother could talk Indian language and it has been my understanding that she lived with the Indians in Buncombe Co., N.C. I think it was Buncombe Co. My mother came to Ga. when she was a single woman and she married in Ga. My wife is a full blooded white woman. My mother had one brother by the name of Isaah Roberts. I am not positive but I think my mother had a brother by the same name as my father, that being Daniel. My mother had several sisters. One of them was named Rilda. My mother was married ~~in~~ before 1851. Another one of my mothers sisters was named Lizzie. All of my mother's brothers and sisters were born and raised in Buncombe Co., N.C. This is the only benefit I have ever applied for. I have had literature time and again from a man in the Territory to apply but I never did. I lost one of my children on the 26th day of last month. His name was William. I have seven children now. There is nobody in this country who knew my grandparents and who can give any more information than I have. I have an aunt here in Chattanooga, on my father's side. She doesn't know where my grandparents lived, nor does anyone else that I know of. My grandmother on my mother's side died after 1851, as did my grandmother on my father's side.

Another was Eli.

I do not know what part of the Old Nation they were living in 1851; His mothers n' name was Mary Ward before she was married: Mary Ward got her Indian blood thru her father. Her mother was a white woman. The mother of Mary Ward was Polly or Mary Ward. The sisters of Mary Ward were Sarah Ann, she was the eldest, the next, Louisa, she married Sam Trout, ~~the next~~, Wm Trout was a white man?: Louisa's oldest child was George Trout. (See 2108 and 9 Chapman) The next sister after Louisa, was Nannie, the next Cherokee, the next, Sabra, The brothers of Mary Ward were Vann, artin, Sam, (See Chapman 2091-99) George Ward came out to the Indian Territory at the time of the Emigration and then he went back and got his family afterwards. The family came to the Territory some time about 1856. George Ward was killed sometime after the Civil War. Luroy Blevins goes by the name of Lee Blevins also. Luroy Blevins has been married twice. His first wife was Louisa Widiffer His second wife was a Vickery, but I do not know her first name. Louisa Widiffer married a Berry after she quit living with Luroy Blevins.
